

Embracing Earth Day

Dear Tim:

Today is Earth Day, a day when we're supposed to think about the environment, consider our impact on the planet, and raise awareness about what we all can do to make the earth a better, safer, cleaner place to live. I'm writing letters to all my political representatives and asking them to take environmental issues as seriously as they do the many other threats to our safety. I'm also sharing my knowledge and concern with family and friends. What are you doing?

-Tree Hugger on Tremont

Dear Tree Hugger:

In the spirit of spreading the word, I'm sharing your letter with our readers and encouraging them to take the same steps you're taking to raise people's consciousness about these important issues. Hopefully many of those same people attended the Green Day UA event that

DEAR TIM

Leadership UA hosted in our parking lot a couple of weeks ago. It was an informative afternoon of recycling, awareness and education that made ours a smarter community when it comes to sustainable living.

Dear Tim:

I don't know about you, but I'm very excited about the Columbus Clippers' and their new digs downtown. I've followed the team for years, and I don't ever remember this much excitement for a season. The new ballpark looks like a real jewel, and having the team tied to the Cleveland Indians should make following them even more interesting. When's Dime-A-Dog Night?

-Minor Leaguer on Millcreek

Dear Minor Leaguer:

I'm not sure about their promotional schedule, but I think a lot of people share your excitement for this season of Clippers baseball. I've been going to games since I was a kid, and I'm looking forward to sharing that same experience with my grandkids. If you can't wait for Dime-A-Dog Night, check out our selection of flavorful franks in aisle 5. They may not be 10 cents each, but they'll get you in the swing of the season.
