

Perplexed About Peach

Dear Tim:

A guy I like called me a peach. Should I feel complimented or insulted?

-Confused on Concord

Dear Confused:

If he was comparing you to one of the southern peaches we're stocking in the fresh fruit case at the front of the store, consider yourself complimented. They're juicy, delicious and healthy. But please don't take that the wrong way.

Dear Tim:

I'm one of the 10 percent of Ohioans who's out of work at the moment. Any advice on getting a job in this economy?

-Looking on Loos

Dear Looking:

I can't tell you where the jobs are, but I can tell you what employers are looking for:

DEAR TIM

employees who are enthusiastic, dedicated, courteous, on time, self-motivated and observant. Whatever skills and experience you have, you won't last long working for me or anyone else without those qualities. If you want a tutorial, stop by the store some time and I'll introduce you to some of the best people in the grocery business. They've all succeeded thanks to the qualities I just mentioned. So can you. Good luck.

Dear Tim:

Do you watch that reality show Jon & Kate Plus 8? Have you ever seen anyone as starved for the spotlight as the mom on that show? She could use a little humble pie, don't you think?

-Watcher on Waldo

Dear Watcher:

I don't know about humble pie, but if you want to send her a cherry pie just let me know. We can special order from Just Pies for any occasion, though I don't know if divorce technically counts as an occasion.
