

Bewildered By Weather

DEAR TIM

Dear Tim:

They say March is supposed to come in like a lion and go out like a lamb, but with this freakishly mild winter we've had, it seems like it's going to be lamb-like on both ends. What gives?

-Confused on Concord

Dear Confused:

I don't know what to tell you. I'm not a meteorologist, but this has to be the weirdest winter I can remember. Almost no snow and way more sunlight than any of us is used to. I'm not complaining, mind you, but I'm just as confused as you. Of course, if March is going to be like a lamb, that's fine, too. We love lamb. Ohio-farm fresh and cut to order, it's one of our specialties. Just ask James in the meat department.

Dear Tim:

My husband's new boss and his wife are coming over for dinner this weekend. I'd really like to "wow" them. Any suggestions?

Dear Nervous:

Sure. Just be yourself. And choose a nice wine. It's a great starter. If you don't know much about wine, join us for Friday's wine tasting. Dave will be set up as always between aisles 1 and 2 with samples and advice. Then be confident, relax and have fun.
