

Psyched About Safari

Dear Tim:

I was thinking about going on an African safari for spring break this year. Any thoughts?

-Traveler on Trentwood

Dear Traveler:

Sure. Don't go. I'm not sure if you've been following the news lately, but, with the exception of the Middle East, Africa seems to be the epicenter of global chaos at the moment. There are marauding gangs kidnapping innocent children in some countries and outbreaks of the plague du jour in others. Even the folks at Fodor's can't put a good spin on it. Here's a thought. Go to the awesome new Heart of African exhibit at the Columbus Zoo instead. It's got all the feel of an African adventure without all the deadly viruses and civil wars. Take a picnic lunch if you like. We've got pre-made sandwiches and Cape Cod chips in aisle 6. It's not as exotic, but you will come back alive.

DEAR
TIM

---

Dear Tim is presented as a public service by Tim Huffman, owner of Huffman's Market. Write to him in care of Huffman's Market, 2140 Tremont Center, Upper Arlington, Ohio, 43221, stop by and say hi, or visit www.huffmansmarket.com.