

Cookie Comeback

Dear Tim:

My Christmas Eve cookie game was pretty weak last year and I'm afraid it might have put me on Santa's naughty list. What can I leave out for the big man this year that will blow the doors off St. Nick's sleigh?

Dear Crumbled:

Tough break, man. If there's one night you want your cookies to be A+ it's Christmas Eve. Like your behavior, Santa wants and deserves nothing but your best this time of year. And while there are lots of great choices, I suggest taking things to the next level this time out. Really show Kris Kringle you've learned your lesson and won't be leaving him any sad snacks from now on. Try a plate of Der Dutchman Snickerdoodles or Monster cookies. You'll find both on the end cap between aisles 3 and 4. If they can't get you off the naughty list, baked goods may not be your problem.
