

Fiesta-Less Bowl

Dear Tim:

It's hard to get excited about the Fiesta Bowl this year when the expectation was a return trip to the title game. How do I get hyped up for the game when there's nothing on the line?

-Underwhelmed on Upper Chelsea

Dear Underwhelmed:

Your expectations may be low, but I'll bet Notre Dame's aren't. Those guys have got to be dying for another crack at the Buckeyes after three straight losses to the men of scarlet and gray. And it's got to be a big deal to their boosters, too, who, as you know, are not at all shy about letting you know their loyalties. I'm not saying you should be as amped up as last year, but try to find some excitement in there somewhere. Grab a bag of Tostitos from aisle 6 (even though they don't sponsor the game anymore) and party like it's 2003. Our guys will need every ounce of energy we've got to finish strong. Go Bucks!
