

Name Game

Dear Tim:

Why is it that every celebrity couple has to have a nickname now? It started with Ben Affleck and Jennifer Lopez being called “Bennifer.” Then it was Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie being called “Brangelina.” Now apparently Bill and Hillary Clinton are being called “Billary.” When is this ridiculousness going to stop?

DEAR
TIM

Dear Fed:

Not any time soon, I don't think. I asked the better half in my celebrity relationship, “Tenda” (she prefers “Glim” for obvious reasons), and she said this is just going to be a thing from now on. Sounds pretty ridiculous to me, too. Unless you're talking about TurDuckHen, which is the greatest name combo of all time. Turkey, duck and chicken all in one? What could be better for Thanksgiving than that? Besides the in-laws calling to cancel? Get yours here while supplies last. And before Miley Cyrus starts dating the next available Jonas Brother.
