

Secret Foodie Fest

Dear Tim:

Word on the street is you hosted some kind of underground foodie festival last weekend. What, no invitation for me?

-Foodie on Fairfax*Dear Foodie:

You were invited. In fact, everyone was invited. It was “The” Ohio Eggfest, a celebration of family, friends, food and fun, and we held it right here in the parking lot at Tremont Center. We had individuals and teams cooking barbeque on Big Green Eggs for “prestigious” and “popular” awards. We had craft beer samplings. We had kids in costumes. And, of course, I was there signing autographs and smiling for selfies. But it wasn’t just about me and food and beer; we raised a bunch of money for The James and the Stefanie Spielman Fund for Breast Cancer Research, too. Which is what made the event particularly eggsciting. Visit www.theohioeggfest.com to see what it was all about. And plan to be here next year. No secret, and no RSVP required.
